

THE PERIODICALS OF THE NIGERIAN CIVIL WAR AND THEIR AVAILABILITY IN NIGERIAN LIBRARIES

Abstract

The periodical component of the literature produced on the Nigerian civil war between 1967 and 1982 was subjected to bibliometric analysis for the purpose of identifying the most productive journals and their countries of origin. An attempt was made to assess the holdings of Nigeria libraries against the periodicals in order to determine their state of availability