VC INAUGURATES CODeL DISCARD RUMOUR GOVERNING BOARD

Vice-Chancellor, Federal he University of Technology, Minna, Prof. Musbau Adewumi Akanji, FAS, FNSBMB, has inaugurated the Governing Board of the Centre for Open Distance and e-Learning (CODeL) of the University.

The inauguration took place yesterday at the Vice-Chancellor's Conference Room, Main Campus.

Speaking at the event, the Vice-Chancellor, who is the Chairman of the Board said the ceremony was a rejuvenation of the existing Board, adding that Management wants the Centre to be fully effective from 2017/2018 session while noting that Council is interested in seeing all Centres of the University in a functional state.

Prof. Akanji gave assurance that Management was willing to do everything possible to ensure that the Centre fully starts operation by 2017/2018 academic session.

He thanked other members of the Board for attending the ceremony while charging them to pay unscheduled periodic visits to the Centre in order to put the Centre on it's toes to achieve its set goals.

The Director of the Centre, Prof. Abiodun Aibinu, said the essence of the Centre is to provide access to higher education to a large number of interested students through e-learning, he highlighted the problems faced by the Centre and appealed to Management to look into them so as to ensure that the Centre takes off fully by next session.

Members of the Governing Board include: all the Principal Officers, Directors of CODeL, Academic Planning Unit (APU), Information Technology Services (ITS), Legal Unit and also the HODs of Computer Science and Entrepreneurship and Business Studies. Others are the Deputy Director CODeL as well as the Secretary of the Centre.

OF TUITION FEES HIKE - PROF AKANJI

Friday, June 30, 2017

he Vice-Chancellor of the Federal University of Technology, Minna, Prof. Musbau Adewumi Akanji, FNSBMB, FAS, has appealed to parents, guardians, students and other stakeholders to ignore the recent publication in some national newspapers where the Chairman of the University of Ibadan Chapter of the Academic Staff Union of Universities (ASUU), Dr. Deji Omole alleged hike in tuition fees by 38 Federal Universities, including the Federal University of Technology, Minna.

Prof. AKanji made the appeal yesterday at a meeting held in Council Chamber, Main Campus where he condemned the allegation, which he described as untrue, baseless and capable of causing panic and confusion.

According to him, the University does not collect tuition fees from its Nigerian students, but only charges minimal fees for other services, adding that for the past two years, the fees have not been reviewed.

The Vice-Chancellor of the University, Prof. M. A. Akanji speaking at the meetina

The VC disclosed that the review of fees and other charges are the responsibility of the University Senate and there has not been any meeting of such in recent times where fee increment was discussed.

"The University is currently in the middle of second semester of the 2016/2017 academic session and normally such reviews are done at the beginning of a new academic session," he reiterated.

FST UNDERGOES NUC ACCREDITATION SCRUTINY

he Department of Food, Science and Technology, Federal University of Technology, Minna has undergone the mandatory National Universities Commission (NUC) accreditation exercise aimed at ensuring that the programme meets with the Benchmark Minimum Academic Standards (B-MAS).

L-R: Prof. Akanji, the team leader, Prof. Ariahu (4th& 5th from left) flanked by other members of the team, POs, staff of Academic Planning Unit and the department of Food, Science and Technology in a group photograph after the event.

The members of the accreditation team were in the University between June 15 and 17, 2017 to look at the department's curriculum and other aspects as laid down in NUC guidelines for accreditation.

Speaking while presenting the team's preliminary report to the Vice-Chancellor of the University, Prof. Musbau Adewumi Akanji FNSBMB, FAS, in company of other University top brass at the Boardroom, School of Science and Technology Education, Bosso Campus, the leader of the team, Prof. Charles Ariahu from University of Agriculture, Makurdi, expressed appreciation to the University Management for the warm reception accorded the team during the course of carrying out the exercise, stating that the University is a good host.

Prof. Ariahu commended the department for ensuring that the philosophy of the course was adequate and clearly defined to address the problem of food security in the country while advising that some courses need to be added to the curriculum in order to meet the NUC B-MAS.

"We are happy with the fact that more than 70 percent of the departmental staff are Ph.D. holders in different fields of food, science and technology," he said.

He urged the University Management to ensure timely completion of the second phase of the School of Agriculture and Agricultural Technology so that the department would have more places to house some of its laboratory equipment which he noted would boost teaching, learning and research. members of the accreditation team for working hard within two days to look at the department's programme. He disclosed that the department is dear to the University and that Management would do everything possible to make sure that the programme scales through the accreditation exercise.

The VC praised the new system of programme accreditation exercise introduced by the Executive Secretary of NUC, Prof. Abubakar Rasheed on assumption of office, adding that the system is favourable to the accreditation panel and the University.
