With a few days to the commencement of Nigerian University Games Association, (NUGA) the Alumni Association of the Federal University of Technology, Minna has donated some jerseys and other sporting equipment to facilitate the University's preparation for the tournament.

The sporting kits were presented to the institution by the National Vice President of the Association, Pastor Prof. Shola Solomon who led the alumni delegation.

Presenting the items to management team of the university, Pastor Prof. Solomon who also doubles as the Chairman, Sports Committee, University of Agriculture, Markurdi explained that they were in Minna to support the Management on the NUGA games slated for next week.

He also appreciated the Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Abdullahi Bala fssn, for the support and attention he has been giving to sports in the University.

Speaking with nostalgia, Prof. Solomon appreciated the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Administration) Prof. Emmanuel Emeka Udensi for his mentorship during their days as students of the institution.

Introducing the delegation to the Management team of the University earlier, the Director FUT, Minna Advancement and Development Office, Prof. Idris Nda Abdullahi said that he was particularly happy with the University Management for repositioning the Alumni, disclosing that the body now has a total of seven state chapters, excluding that of Kwara State that has just come up.

The Director added that "realising that the university is strained in funds, the association decided to come and assist it to facilitate the preparation for the upcoming Nigerian University Games that is scheduled for Lagos next week.

Responding to the Alumni delegation, representative of the Vice-Chancellor, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Administration) Prof. Emmanuel Emeka Udensi, fnip pointed out that the contribution came at the right time as it will help in solving some of the problems that the University would have encountered.

Prof. Udensi also eulogised Prof. Idris Nda Abdullahi for leading the team and the donation, adding that the University looks forward to receiving more donations from the Alumni.

On his part, the Chairman University Sports Committee, Prof. Rasheed Ojituku, appreciated the current leadership of the association for the donation. He explained that the University featured in 12 different games and qualified to participate in eight in the forthcoming NUGA games.

The Sports Committee Chairman also thanked the Management for the support it had been giving to sporting activities in the University.
