NOTICE TO ALL STAFF

The University Management has resolved that members of SSANU, NASU, and NAAT whose Unions have call off their strike should for the time being WORK FROM HOME till further notice. Those required to carry out any specific assignment will be called upon when the need arises.

This directive however, excludes staff attached to Principal Officers. They are to maintain their coming to office on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Furthermore, those on essential duties, i.e, Security and University Health Services are to maintain the status quo already put in place during the strike period.

Management shares in the pains being experienced by staff now and hopes that the situation will come to normalcy in no distance time.
